

Welcome
JACKIE OBUSEK
SENIOR MANAGING DIRECTOR
Strategy & Operations

Examination Resources is pleased to announce that Jackie Obusek, CPA, will be joining the team as Senior Managing Director, Strategy & Operations, starting on October 1, 2026. Jackie brings over three decades of leadership experience in insurance regulation, where she has been recognized for her strategic vision and collaborative leadership style.

In her previous role as Chief Deputy Commissioner for the North Carolina Department of Insurance, Jackie was instrumental in advancing strategic initiatives and building high-performing teams. Her extensive expertise and industry insights are anticipated to boost Examination Resources' service capabilities for regulators and stakeholders within the insurance sector.

In her role as Senior Managing Director, Strategy & Operations, Jackie will work closely with the firm's leadership team to strengthen operational capabilities, support strategic growth initiatives, and help position the organization for continued success. Her proven leadership, industry knowledge, and commitment to excellence align closely with Examination Resources' mission of delivering trusted expertise and exceptional client service.

We are excited to welcome Jackie to Examination Resources and look forward to the experience, insight, and leadership she will bring to our clients and the organization as we continue to grow and evolve.
